

Learning & Development Manager

Applications are invited by the Dublin office of MaplesFS for the position of

L&D Manager

The L&D Manager will have responsibility for the design, development and delivery of training programs for both online and offline delivery in support of a wide range of training programs including (but not limited to) new hire orientation, management and professional development, leadership development and high-potential training programs.

The successful candidate will join a growing team and play a key role in developing the L&D offering for a global audience.

The successful will be a graduate with an excellent academic background. He / She will have least 5 years' experience in a similar role gained in a professional services environment.

Key skills required for this role include: successful delivery of global learning programs, good understanding of instructional design, curriculum development, stakeholder management, project management, e-learning development and LMS platforms.

The successful candidate will have strong interpersonal skills, communication skills, influencing skills and will have a track record in acting as an SME / trainer in the provision of management, leadership and professional development training.

Qualified applicants should write, enclosing their CVs, to careers.eu@maplesfs.com quoting reference: Dublin - L&D Manager. Only successful candidates will be contacted.

For an explanation regarding how we handle the details and CV submitted for positions with one of our European entities, please refer to our Applicant Privacy Notice which is available here.

MaplesFS, through its divisions Maples Fiduciary, Maples Fund Services and Maples Private Client Services, is an independent global provider of specialised fiduciary, fund administration, entity formation and management, insurance and trust and private client services. With offices in key locations around the world, its clients include global financial institutions, institutional investors, investment managers and international corporations.